

I am a flight attendant and think that cell phone usage in the air is unnecessary and unsafe for my flying partners and the rest of the flying public. It would only add to the frustrations on board please rethink this idea